

INSURANCE REGULATORY AND DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY OF INDIA

Insurance Research Grant Scheme

1.Introduction:

Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority of India (IRDAI) sponsors proposals under IRDAI Research Grant Scheme, which provides opportunities for research in the field of Insurance. IRDAI welcomes theoretical or applied research work in the areas related to policyholder's protection, consumer education and issues adjunct with orderly growth of insurance industry aiming to spread awareness about insurance as a vital component of financial inclusion and towards making insurance a part of day-to-day life.

2.Subjects covered:

The subjects for research may include a wide range of issues of critical importance to the insurance sector but shall have relevance to achieving the objectives of the mission statement of Authority, i.e. Protecting the interests of the holders of insurance policies and orderly growth of insurance sector in India.

3.Grant support:

i. The funding will be provided to cover the cost of entire research project subject to a maximum of 85% of the budget, up to a maximum of Rs. 5 lakh per applicant/proposal. The support will be towards reimbursement of necessary expenses essential for the research within the reasonable limits.

ii. The budget shall include actual cost for research, writing, editing and publishing of the Research Reports and expenditure towards honorarium, travel expenses, expenses for field survey and investigations, data entry and analysis, salary /expenses for hiring Research Assistant/Administrative assistance etc. The amount will be disbursed based on the budget estimate submitted with the application and submission of bills in support of expenses incurred therewith.

iii. A reasonable limit is the normal cost required for a travel or for any other service as prevailing during the time of research in that geographical location but it needs to be estimated at the application stage itself and requires prior clearance of the Research Selection Committee. However, the grant shall not be utilized towards indirect costs, overhead costs, and other incidental expenses or for sharing of infrastructure, etc.

iv. In exceptional cases where the overall total expenses exceed the budget estimate due to genuine reasons beyond the control of the applicant, with recommendations and approval by the Research Selection Committee, IRDAI may consider sanctioning of additional budget but within the maximum limit of Rs. 5 lakh.

4. Disbursement of Funds

- i) Research Grant is paid in three installments viz. up to 40% of the eligible grant at the time of issuance of sanction letter as first installment; second installment up to 30% of grant after six months on submission of Interim report and the final balance amount after completion of the research project and submission of duly signed audited report for the total expenses incurred for the project.
- ii) The bills, supporting the expenses incurred for the research have to be duly verified and signed by an auditor.

5. Eligibility:

Applicants are expected to have advanced degrees (Ph.D. or equivalent) and be associated with an educational organization or research institution.

6. How to apply:

Applicants must ensure that all relevant information and major components required for consideration of the application are submitted to IRDAI in the given application format with a covering letter confirming submission of the following:

While each individual applicant can submit only one proposal, there is no restriction on the submission of more than one proposal from a single institution. However, one applicant shall be eligible to undertake one research project only in one financial year.

7. Selection Procedure:

- a) Research Selection Committee: A Research Selection Committee (RSC) constituted by IRDAI will assess and shortlist the proposals.

b) Selection process:

- i) Preliminary screening by RSC shall be based on eligibility criteria and information furnished in the proposal and RSC shall take a decision in this regard.
- ii) Only the best proposals out of the applications received shall be short-listed and other proposals can be declined at the preliminary stage. Mere filing of application does not confer any right for sponsorship under the scheme.
- iii) The applicants of the shortlisted proposals shall be called for making presentations before RSC at their own cost. Based on the information furnished and the presentation given by the applicant, RSC will make recommendations to accept or decline an application.

c) The criteria for selection includes the following:

- The research theme selected shall be of relevance to the topics such as Insurance Awareness, Insurance Penetration, Distribution Development, Policyholders' protection or any other topic as may be suggested by Members of IRDAI. The shortlisting of topics will be with the approval by the Chairman, IRDAI.
- The entire proposed research work is a doable project to be completed within the committed timeline.
- Qualification/past experience/track record of the research applicant

- d) The final decision with regard to awarding grant under the scheme vests with Competent Authority, viz. Chairman, IRDAI. The decision of Competent Authority will be final and no further correspondence shall be exchanged in this regard. After approval by the Competent Authority, a letter of communication or sanction letter with the terms and conditions of the grant will be sent to the applicant.

8. Evaluation of Progress:

The details of the progress made have to be submitted on quarterly basis. Further, after completion of work, an Interim report has to be prepared and presented before RSC for their evaluation before finalising the report.

9. Submission of Final Report

A Final Report shall be submitted within nine months' period from the date of issuance of sanction letter along with disbursement of first instalment of grant. In exceptional cases, a grace period of 30 days may be given by the Competent Authority subject to submission of valid reasons for such delay by the applicant.

The Final Report including acknowledgement of support and disclaimer, etc., shall be presented before the IRDAI. The research publication will be the property of IRDAI for all purposes and uses.
